

Project explanation

our Project is a website for get pdf books for free which managed by administrator and some sub-administrators who can publish books and remove books and books on the site are classified by its topic, and the requirements for the site are explained as:

- user can download books available on the site.
- books are classified by its topics.
- user can search about any book.
- user can rate any book.
- administrator can add any book.
- administrator can remove any book.
- administrator can view users.
- administrator can remove users.
- administrator can know which books was downloaded by user.
- administrator can add new sub-administrator from users list.